6.9 Assignment: Personal Project Retrospective
Written By Fahim Arsad Nafis

- The team has followed the Agile Methodology very well.
- The team worked together as a team.
- Writing test case and acceptance test was a very good approach from the very beginning of the project.
- Dependencies of the story should be looked at before planning sprint.
- Team Velocity can't be determined at the very beginning of the project.
- Daily stand up meeting is beneficial to the development process.
- Sprint retrospective meeting is beneficial to plan the next sprint perfectly.
- The project retrospective meeting is beneficial to maintain overall progress as a team.
- Anti Patterns like loose canon must be maintained during the development cycle.
- Documentation is a very good practice of the development cycle.